

Specialist in Education Degree (Ed.S.)

Major: Teaching and Learning Concentration in Music Education

(30 total credit hours required)

Please read the Ed.S. application checklist carefully when applying for this degree program.*

I. Professional Studies (9 credit hours)

EDCI 8900	Educational Inquiry (3 credits)
EDCI 8960	Seminar in Leadership/Supervision in Teaching and Learning (3 credits)
EDCI 8400	Dynamics of Teaching, Learning and Curriculum Development (3 credits)

II. Teaching Field (21 credit hours)

(a) Required: (12 credit hours)

MUS8240	Research in Music Education (3 credits)
MUS8260	Curriculum and Assessment in Music Education (3 credits)
MUS8580	Leadership and Supervision of Music Education (3 credits)
MUS8980	Advanced Research Project in Music Education (3 credits)

(b) Additional: (3 credit hours)

choose from the following

MUS7700	Psychology of Music Learning (3 credits)
MUS7210	Arts, Education and the Community (3 credits)
MUS8400	Contemporary Issues/Philosophies of Music Education (3 credits)
MUS8950	Practicum in Music Education (3 credits)
MUS____	Other 7000/8000 level music education courses consistent with the student's interest

(c) Electives: (6 credit hours)

With instructor approval, select from graduate music education, music history, music theory, performance, conducting, or from courses in another department directly related to the student's teaching or research interests.

Schedule of Music Education Course Offerings: (courses rotate through a two-year cycle)

Year A: 2006-2007, 2008-2009, 2010-2011, etc.

Year B: 2005-2006, 2007-2008, 2009-2010, etc.

YEAR A

Fall

8620 Curriculum/Assessment

Spring

7700 Psychology of Music Learning

YEAR B

Fall

8240 Research in Music Education

8210 Arts, Education & Community

Spring

8580 Leadership and Supervision

8400 Contemporary Issues/Philosophies