One significant work or group of works by a Romantic composer (Chopin, Schumann, Liszt,

Applicants should submit a list of their undergraduate repertory at the time of the audition.

Applicants residing 300 miles or more from Atlanta may submit a self-recorded audition. See graduate audition guidelines for details (www.music.gsu.edu).

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

1. Successful completion of at least 36 hours of graduate course work
2. A piano proficiency examination to be taken after the second semester of enrollment or 20 hours of study, or successful completion of MUS 6360 Advanced Keyboard Skills
3. A lecture recital
4. Two recitals: MUS 8490 Chamber or Ensemble Recital and MUS 8590 Solo Recital
5. Comprehensive examination.

Completion of the degree normally requires four semesters of full-time study (fall-spring). Some courses may be taken during the summer term. Individual time lines may vary. Every student is assigned a faculty advisor to assist with program planning.

LECTURE RECITAL

Graduate piano performance majors are required to give a lecture recital on a topic of their choice in consultation with the applied teacher and piano faculty. The lecture recital should be approximately one hour long with the lecture and performance portions being divided equally.

COMPREHENSIVE EXAM

By the midpoint of the final semester of study, the student will schedule an oral and/or written examination. The committee should include at least three faculty members (including the applied instructor and a theory or history faculty member). The examination will assess the student's knowledge regarding repertoire, pedagogy, music theory, and music history. The student will be expected to synthesize his/her knowledge and demonstrate a high level of musical understanding. Preparation should include a detailed review of all graduate courses taken and a review of the music that has been studied and performed as part of the master's program. It is the student's responsibility to provide a copy of all literature studied (both solo and chamber) and a listing of all graduate courses taken during the Master's program for each committee member at least one week before the scheduled examination date. The scheduled date of the comprehensive examination must be submitted to the Director of Graduate Studies no later than the midpoint of the final semester of study. Students planning to graduate in the Fall or Spring must complete the comprehensive examination by the end of the twelfth week of classes. Students planning to graduate in the Summer must complete the comprehensive examination by the end of the fourth week of classes.
